Since her early days she has a knack of grasping and adopting food practices of her mother and grandmothers. Her strength lies in understanding the ancient science of using food for therapeutic purposes and simplifying it for the modern Indian palate. She is deeply inspired by the works of Dr. Khadar Vali in the field of millets and their immense health benefits. In the past 4 years she has adopted a millets-based diet for herself, her family, and her clients. She has been instrumental in helping patients suffering from a wide range of illnesses like cancer, IBS, diabetes, kidney failure, and many others manage their symptoms and live a healthier, more energetic lifestyle only through the usage of a proper diet. She has refined and curated many dishes from Millets to make it more popular for the modern palate. For her valuable contribution towards promoting millets as a part of the Eat Right India movement by FSSAI she has been felicitated by FDA and invited by "She The People" to write regularly for their online magazine on the benefits of millets.

Dr. Pooja Anand, She is working as Professor and Dean at Faculty of Physiotherapy, SGT University.
