

Dr. Nimisha Kumar

RESEARCH PAPERS PUBLISHED : 8

1. Sharma, G, & Kumar, N. (2017). Urban poverty, Family Stress and parenting in light of Bronfenbrenner's Ecological Model and Conger et al., Family Stress Model. International Journal of Current trends in Science & Technology, Vol. 7 (9), pp.20360-20366.
2. Padhy, S. & Kumar, N. (2017). Understanding resilience in chronically Ill children: Parental perspectives on strengths, difficulties and fostering resilience in children with thalassemia major. Indian Journal of Health and Wellbeing. Vol. 8(7), 588-593.( ISSN- p-2229-5356,e-2321-3698)
3. Jain, S. & Kumar, N. (2017). Revisiting Gandhian Thought in Early Childhood: An Educational and Philosophical Perspective. International Journal of Education and Management. Vol. 7(2), 166-170. (ISSN: p-2231-5632-e-2321-3671).
4. Bhargava, R., Kumar,N. & Gupta, A. (2016). Indian Perspective on psychotherapy: cultural issues. Journal of contemporary psychotherapy. Vol 6(4). (ISSN: 0022-0116)
5. Kumar, N. (2014). Reviving Higher Education in India. Modern Approaches and Innovation in Psychology, New Voices Publication, Aurangabad. (ISBN: 978-93-8250446-7)
6. Khan, N. & Kumar, N. (2014). Gender Differences in Aggression among Pre-school children and its impact on Social Competencies. International Journal of Social Science, Vol. 3(special issue), pg. 291-297. (ISSN: 0976-3201)
7. Ittyerah, M. and Kumar, N. (2007). The Actual and Ideal self-concept in disabled children and Adolescents. Psychology and Developing Societies, Vol. 19 (1): 81-112. (ISSN: 0971-3336)
8. Kumar, N. and Singh, J.G. (2001). A study of Surgical Stress in Female patients. Journal of Personality and Clinical Studies, Vol. 17 (2): 100-107.

CHAPTER IN BOOKS: 7

1. Kumar, N. (2016). Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Techniques with Children. (Care for Young Children – ECD knowledge series - III). Global Books Organisation, New Delhi (ISBN: 978-93-8057098-3)
2. Kumar, N. (2015). Review of psycho-social and Cognitive behavioral Aspects in Diabetes. 'Multidisciplinary Health care'. New Delhi Publishers. (ISBN: 978-93-80570-98-3)
3. Kumar, N. & Sultan, S. (2015). Impact of Fathering on child development outcomes: A Review study. 'Multidisciplinary Health care'. New Delhi Publishers. (ISBN: 978-93-80570-98-3)
4. Kumar, N. And Gupta, P. (2012). Cognitive Behaviour Therapy in India: Adaptations, Beliefs and Challenges. In: CBT in the non-western World. Nova Publishers Inc. (ISBN: 978-1-61209-9 94-1)
5. Dey, A.B., Gupta, S., and Kumar, N. (2003). Reversing Ageing: Non-pharmacological interventions. pp. 219-230. In: Dey, A.B. (Ed.) Ageing in India. Rakmo Press Pvt. Ltd: New Delhi.
6. Dey, A.B. and Kumar, N. (2003). Counselling the older person. pp. 249-256. In: Dey, A.B. (Ed.) Ageing in India. Rakmo Press Pvt. Ltd: New Delhi.
7. Dey, A.B. & Kumar, N. (2003). Importance of Mental Health in older people. Pp. 1-14. In: Bagchi, K. (Ed.). Music, Mind and Mental Health. Society for Gerontological Research, New Delhi.

BOOKS PUBLISHED / EDITED: 2

1. Kumar, N., Sharma, R., Satapathy, S. & Kaloiya, G.S. (2017) (Eds.). CBT In Indian Context - A collection of research papers. Winshield Press, New Delhi. (ISBN: 978-81-321-17 93-3)
2. Kumar, N. (2016). (Editor) - Family and Community participation – ECD Knowledge series I, Global Books Organisation, New Delhi. (ISBN: 978-93-8057096-9).