SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

SGT University actively contributes to the development of sustainable cities and communities by engaging in research and projects that promote urban sustainability. The university emphasizes eco-friendly urban planning, sustainable housing, and smart city concepts. The campus itself is designed with green spaces, rainwater harvesting systems, and waste management protocols, demonstrating a commitment to environmental sustainability. Additionally, the university involves students in projects focused on sustainable community development, such as public transportation studies and renewable energy initiatives. Through these efforts, SGT aligns with SDG 11 by promoting sustainable living practices both on and off-campus.

HOSTEL RULES AND REGULATIONS

The students admitted to the hostel are assumed to be a prudent persons, having sufficient maturity to enable them to live in an adult environment. Such living involves full respect for the rights of others, regard for self-discipline, high standard of honesty, and enviable moral conduct. These regulations have been framed not to restrict the conduct of individuals but to ensure that a multitude of students should live and work harmoniously together with the minimum of discord.

1. Hostel residence is optional for all categories of students.
2. Hostel Fee:
 - a) First year Student will apply and get the hostel room allotment from the warden and after the room allotment he/she will deposit the hostel fees with the accounts department. On receipt of the fees, room allotment will be confirmed.
 - b) Second year onwards, all the students staying in the hostel will get the re-allotment from the respective warden on the request for continuation by the students.
 - c) For MD, MS, MDS, MBBS, BDS, and BAMS (Annual) Programmes, hostel allotment will be done on annual basis and from start of the academic session as per council norms and fees will be deposited for the full year in one instalment.
 - d) For all the other Programmes, where tuition fees are collected for the semester, hostel will be allotted on annual basis, but student will have the option to deposit the fees for each semester.
 - e) Hostel fees for Medical/Annual Programmes will be collected for full year in advance even if the student occupies the hostel later or leave the hostel before completion of the year, so no pro-rata collection/refund will be made.
 - f) For semester Programmes, although the hostel will be allotted for full year, fees for first semester will be collected in advance for the period of 6 months, i.e. Aug-Jan in July and for Feb-July in Jan.
 - g) If any student takes the late admission, he/she occupies the hostel in the month of Aug, he must pay the full semester fees, and if he/she occupies the hostel from September onwards, prorata hostel fees will be collected till Jan and from second semester onwards, he/she will be depositing the hostel fees as regular.
 - h) If any student leaves the hostel before completion of the full year, even then he/she must deposit the full year hostel fees.
 - i) If the payment is not deposited in time, as specified by the accounts, a fine will be imposed at Rs. 500/- per day up to one month, if hostel fees is delayed by more than one month, then management has the right to get the room vacated.
3. Partial Hostel fee will not be accepted by the University.
4. Once paid, the hostel fee will neither be refunded nor transferred.
